PNP – Provincial Nominee Program –

- Provincial Nomination is an important fast-track option for Canadian Permanent Residency.
- For e.g. if a student studies a course from any institution from Saskatchewan, then he can apply for PR after completion of the course under Provincial Nominee Program if the province is participating at that point of time.
- Ontario, Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba, New Brunswick, Newfoundland and Labrador, Northwest Territories, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, Saskatchewan and Yukon are the provinces which periodically participate in the Provincial Nominee Program (PNP).
- Facility of Super Visa is offered to parents.
- Super Visa (Super Visa) is a temporary resident permit that allows parents and grandparents of permanent residents or citizens of Canada to stay for up to 2 years in Canada per visit. It is valid for up to 10 years. A regular multiple-entry visa is also valid for up to 10 years.

Designated Learning Institutions

To apply for a study permit on or after 1st June 2014, an international student will need to have a letter of acceptance from a designated learning institution.

Each province and territory in Canada is responsible for designating educational institutions at the post-secondary level that may enroll international students on or after 1st June 2014.

This list of designated learning institutions can be found on the below mentioned link.

<http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/study/study-institutions-list.asp>

If a study permit application is made on or after 1st June 2014 and the letter of acceptance is from an institution that is not designated for international students, the visa application will be refused.
